Brigid's Light

Tending the Ancestral Flame of the Beloved Celtic Goddess

EDITED BY CAIRELLE CROW PERILLOUX AND LAURA LOUELLA

FOREWORD BY JUDIKA ILLES

Brigid's Light is an anthology celebrating Brigid, an ancient Celtic spirit who ranks among today's most beloved goddesses. Venerated as both goddess and saint, she has traveled the globe alongside the Celtic diaspora. Editors Cairelle Crow Perilloux and Laura Louella pay homage to her worldwide influence, especially among the descendants of immigrants to the Americas.

- ❖ Stories, poetry, art, spells, rituals, and recipes from those touched by Brigid.
- ❖ Contributions from Amy Blackthorn, Laura Tempest Zakroff, Courtney Weber, and many others.
- ❖ Perspectives from within and beyond her original Celtic homeland.

"This is the book all Brigid devotees and enthusiasts have been dreaming about. Brigid's Light is a bubbling cauldron of wisdom and inspiration, and it absolutely belongs on your shelf."

—Tess Whitehurst, author of You Are Magical and Holistic Energy Magic

"This sparkling anthology is a gift, both to Brigid, and to the reader. Nurture your inner fire with this book, and tune in to Brigid's bright energy, not only at Imbolc, but all the year round."

—Zoë Howe, author of Witchful Thinking

"Brigid's Light: Tending the Ancestral Flame of the Beloved Celtic Goddess is more than an excellent anthology; it is an act of healing and the creation of a community of practice."

—Ivo Dominguez Jr., author of The Four Elements of the Wise
